The headline voting intention figures for our poll are as follows: LAB 34\%, CON 34\%, UKIP 15\%, LD 5\%, GRN 6\%, SNP 3\%, OTHER 3\%

In common with many recent polls, our findings indicate that there is a likelihood of another hung parliament. However we're finding little appetite for another coalition government with almost three quarters of likely voters who express an opinion saying that they would rather see a single party gaining an overall majority.

Opinions deeply divided on Europe - $52 \%$ of likely voters would vote to stay in the EU and $48 \%$ to leave.

Faith in politicians isn't exactly at sky high levels - fewer than one in ten feel that politicians are less corrupt now than 20 years ago - around half think they're no different and a third that they are actually more corrupt nowadays.

We asked people in England, Wales and Northern Ireland whether or not they are happy that Scotland voted No in the referendum - excluding undecided, fully $85 \%$ said that they are.
